MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Campus Recreation Department will offer four noncredit classes, including fly-fishing, fly-tying, tennis and tumbling, for UM students, faculty and staff members beginning Monday (June 24).

Fly-fishing will be in two parts, fly-tying will last seven weeks and tennis will be offered during several two-week sessions, with 10 lessons per session. Tumbling lessons will take place during both 4½-week UM Summer Sessions. Tennis will be offered during the day and the other courses will be in the evening.

Interested persons may preregister by going to the Campus Recreation Office, room 109 of the Women's Center, or by phoning 243-2802. Course fees are flexible.
